SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

- ① Each Powell River City / qathet Regional District / Tla’amin Nation resident is entitled to submit one picture. The picture must be in digital format.
- ② It must be taken in the City of Powell River, the qathet Regional District or the territory of the Tla’amin Nation and showcase what is characteristic of yards or home views in this territory.
- ③ The main focus of the picture should be either your own yard or the view from your home.
- ④ Submissions will be judged based solely on:
  - 1) Subject Matter (representing your yard or your view)
  - 2) Photo Composition (visual impact of the photo layout)
  - 3) Detail (sharpness, focus, depth of field, photo resolution)
  - 4) Lighting (colour, brightness, contrast, saturation)
- ⑤ The image file should be larger than 2 MB and have a landscape orientation in order to meet the resolution required to be a finalist.
- ⑥ Only entries submitted by the deadline of noon on Friday, June 5, 2020 will be eligible.

COMPETITION PRIZES & RULES

Finalist pictures from each category will be selected and judged anonymously by a panel of experts who will choose a winning photo by equally balancing the four criteria in Guideline ④.

- The winning pictures for each category will be published in PR Living and displayed at the Library.
- Each of the two winning photographers will receive a 75$ cash prize.
- Twelve finalists from both categories will have their pictures published in a 2021 Library calendar.

The winning photo and the finalists will be announced digitally and all participants will be notified. By submitting, you grant the Powell River Public Library permission to publish your photo in promotional material. You will retain all rights and ownership of the photo you submit. All personal information submitted will be kept strictly confidential and will not be used for any purposes outside of the Powell River Backyard Photography Competition.
