Writer in Residence 2024

Sept. 13th - Oct. 25th

Draft Calendar

The intended purpose of this draft calendar is to provide the writing residence applicant- YOU! - with information about PRPL programming. The Writer in Residence (WIR) at PRPL will devote 50% of their time to library programs and projects for all ages and 50% of their time to personal writing projects. Please use this calendar to sketch out a proposed public engagement schedule that will integrate and complement existing programs and include:

- A Tuesday to Saturday week
- Regular office hours, and drop in writing consultations
- Multiple one-day workshops and/or a longer series of workshops
- Guest attendance at pre-existing PRPL programs
- Presentations at schools
- End-of-residency debrief
- A final celebration event!

Some Existing Programs at PRPL

Children's Programming

Preschool Storytime

Lively fare of puppetry, finger plays, action rhymes, singalong songs, and best-of-the-best-book-tales. Toddlers, preschoolers and family members come discover the energy of words and pictures.

Drawn Together

Kids 8+ come hang out after school on Thursdays for 45 minutes of drawing together. Sessions are interactive with prompts and exercises and plenty of space to share your ideas and creations.

Teen Programming

Young Writers' Group

For Youth 11-18. Interact, create and engage in this social space. Talk writing, learn new techniques and develop your craft.

Fantasy Adventure Club

Youth 12+ are invited to immerse themselves in the world of role-playing games. A Troika-based adventure facilitated by Robin Gibson or a Dungeons and Dragons adventure led by Dungeon Master Dan Rogers.

All Ages Programming

Poetry Circle

A shared creative space for poetry with Amira Abouelalla. A place for listening, connecting, and being inspired, and of course...poetry!

Adult Programming

Write On

Get Creative and share writing in a fun and informal group. Explore nonfiction, fiction and poetry. Writers will receive a prompt and will write for 20-30 minutes followed by discussion and time to share writing.

Memoir Writing for Seniors

PRPL hosts a Memoir Writing for Seniors course and many participants continue to meet monthly in small groups. The program has resulted in public readings, recordings, eBooks and print books.
